The Design Of Nordonia

*DESIGN is a pattern —
A relationship —
An order of things,
Of colors,
Of people,
Blending together
With purpose, with plan —
A plan that is Nordonia.*

The design has . . .

BALANCE—

*BALANCE is an equality of elements,
A parallel, symmetry.
It is a healthy proportion
Of activities and ideas;
Every hour of fun has its counterpart
In concentrated study.
We learn from both.
And for the time we share with others
There is time spent in quiet solitude.*

striking a parallel

*Life is a balance —
Of laughter and tears,
Of victory and defeat,
Of growth,
 mental and physical.*

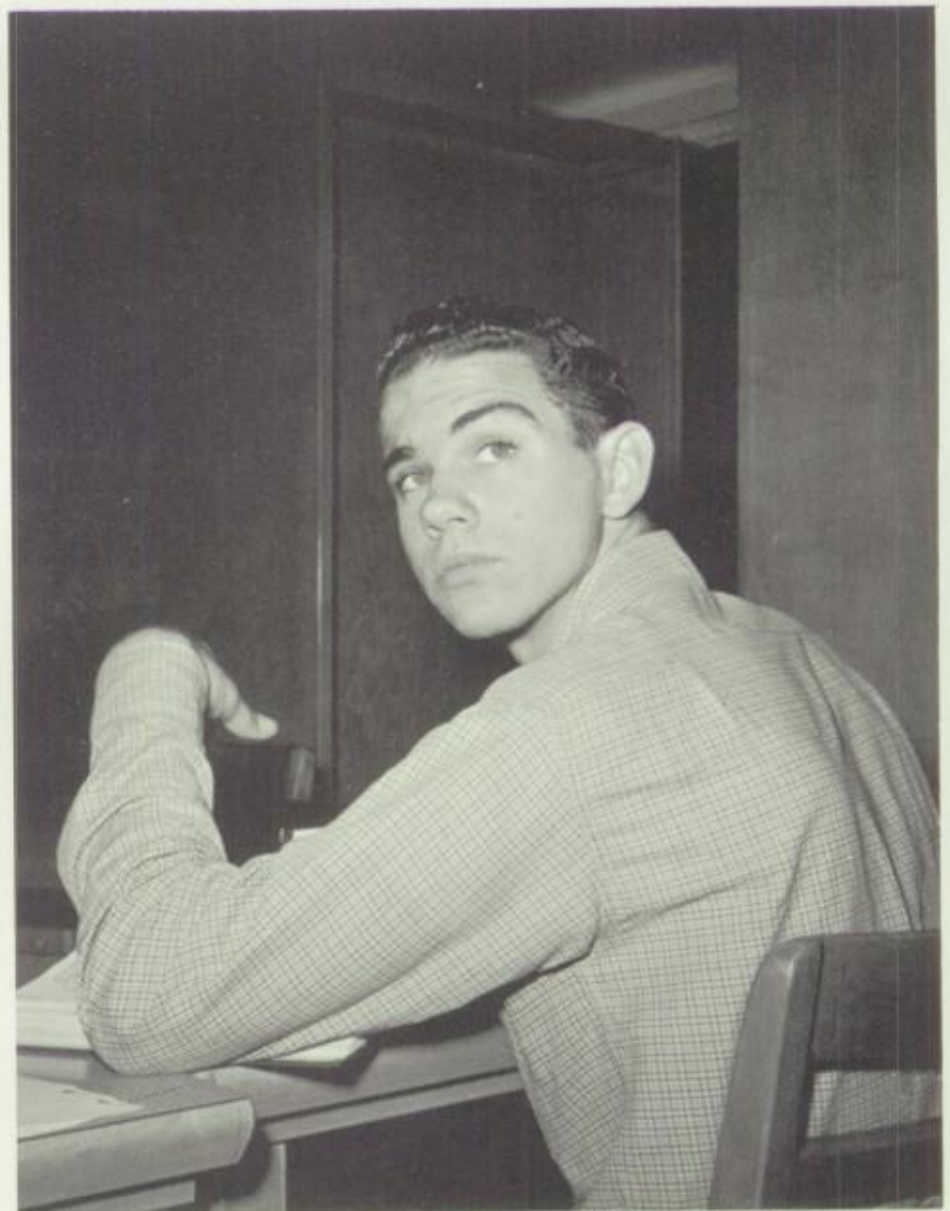

PERSPECTIVE—a point of view

*PERSPECTIVE is a way of looking at things;
Seeing them in the proper light.*

*It is common sense —
To weigh the facts,
To allot time and effort
Where they will be most valuable.*

*It is insight —
To evaluate ideas and goals,
To realize what is important
And what is not.*

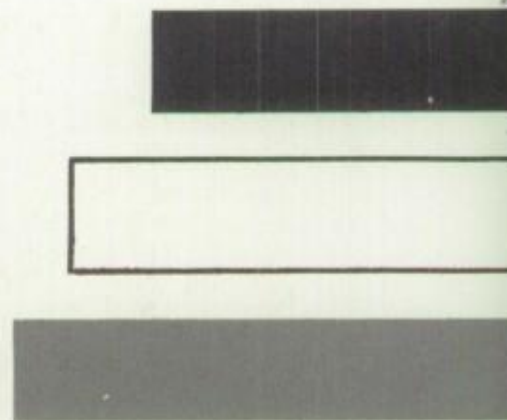

*When design is in perspective,
First things come first;
Lesser things fade into the background,
Important things stand out.*

CONTRAST—black, white,

*This is a world of basic CONTRASTS,
Of opposites —
People, ideas, standards.
There is black.
There is white.
Gray is uncertainty;
Gray is fear of being different;
We are shades of gray.*

*We must remove the indifference of youth.
We must think, and choose,
And uphold our decisions . . .
There is black.
There is white.
There is no room for gray.*

gray

HARMONY—a blending of individuals

*HARMONY is an essential part of any design.
It is not simply the blending
Of colors and shapes —
There is the harmony
Of voices in the choir,
Of team members in a game,
Of different personalities.*

*We must give and take.
 We must accept the ideas of others.
 We must get along.
 For in harmony, combined, we are strong;
 Harmony is individuals working together,
 Each one contributing
 To a pleasing and efficient whole.*

PURPOSE—

*Every design has a PURPOSE,
An overall effect
Brought about by the success or failure
Of its many facets.*

*As parts of the pattern,
We have an individual purpose,
A goal realized through effort,
A concentrated effort to excel.
Perhaps it is scholastic achievement,
Or excellence in sports,
Or molding a sound personal philosophy —
Goals, as people, vary.*

an effort to achieve

*A pattern is complete when its purpose is achieved;
The completion of Nordonia's complex design
Depends upon individuals,
Whom it has guided nearer their purpose.*

Faculty

The designs of youth are in these hands, ever molding, inspiring, seeking better things.

ADMINISTRATION

The demanding position of superintendent has been filled this year by Mr. William Boliantz, whose daily decisions effect the entire school system. In the interests of the community, Mr. Boliantz has efficiently coped with our ever-increasing enrollment and other pressing administrative problems.

Working together for all the schools occupies the time of Mrs. Waite, Mr. Boliantz, and Mr. Grady.

Dr. D. Rightmire, Mr. D. Alkire, Mr. L. Assmus,
Mrs. D. Waite, Mr. R. Warrick, Dr. E. Brown.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Our school board devotes much time and work to the betterment of our expanding school system. Providing Nordon's students with classroom space and special facilities, they have done an excellent job. With the completion of our beautiful new high school, they have launched similar construction plans for an elementary building.

IS THEIR BUSINESS

Capably handling the great responsibilities of his first year as principal, co-ordinating the activities of a growing high school, and instigating new policies, Mr. Calvin Moore has gained the respect of both student body and faculty. His wise leadership has made our first year at Nordon High a successful one.

Mrs. Betty Spencer
Librarian

The cheerful smile and secretarial skill of Mrs. Bernadette Hannaford have kept the superintendent's office operating smoothly.

Smooth functioning of office detail is the responsibility of Mrs. Marge Elgin, secretary, as she organizes records, issues admit slips, and other everyday but necessary duties.

Efficiently synchronizing daily activity, Mrs. June Burrue is an invaluable asset to the office staff.

Mrs. Burrue cheerfully distributes admit slips to the daily quota of latecomers.

CUSTODIANS

The maintenance of a growing high school includes both routine tasks and emergencies. These duties are efficiently handled by our custodians: J. Grady, Building Supervisor; J. Bonath, Head Custodian; L. Deel, H. Heitz, M. J. Goliszewski, S. Mazurk.

COOKS

Sustaining starving students is the daily task capably faced by our cooks: F. Bonath, Supervisor; V. Strobel, Manager; M. Adler, L. Camp, E. Dovich, E. Hohne, M. Goetz, D. Mazurk.

BUS DRIVERS

Transporting busloads of students, an important responsibility, can be a trying and dangerous experience. Doing an excellent job, our bus drivers are: R. Holbrook, H. Baldwin, V. Bissell, R. Dunikowski, E. Freeland, G. Kukarola, G. Major, M. Napper, M. Northey, J. Schaberl, T. Thaxton, R. Thomas, S. Trubicza, R. DeBolt, V. Thaxton.

Under the experienced direction of Mr. Clyde Ebeling, the choir has been a credit to our school. Besides augmenting countless concerts and assemblies with its inspirational music, the Nordonia A Capella Chorus received a I rating at both the District and State Contests. Congratulations, chorus and Mr. Ebeling, on a truly wonderful job!

HOMEcoming

QUEEN BARB

Judy DiNicolantonio

Madeline Snedden

Sandy Ocasek

Cheryl Tilly

Lois Paolucci

Tension mounts as the girls prepare for the big moment.

Our lovely and excited attendants are: S. Ocasek, Junior; C. Tilly, Freshman; L. Paolucci, Sophomore; and Seniors M. Snedden, B. Kobie and J. DiNicolantonio.

Their Senior escorts are: W. Ocasek, T. Early, G. Meers, M. Tucker, G. Nelson, F. Garnett.

An expectant crowd shows emphatic approval as the girls are escorted onto the field.

At last, the pinnacle of this impressive occasion arrives, and Sue Arlein places the crown on Barb Kobie's head.

The Queen receives a football and congratulatory kiss from team captain, John Stoner.

With radiant smiles, Queen Barb and her attendants depart, looking forward to the Homecoming Dance.

Lovely Terralyn Walters was crowned Queen of the dance by Lois Paolucci, her attendant.

After the excitement of the coronation was over, Steve took the spotlight as he squeezed under the makeshift limbo bar.

The WINTER FANTASY, a Christmas formal sponsored by the band, was a successful and welcome addition to our annual roster of social events.
